

The Mispillion Kennel Club, Inc.
Presents

Naturally Healthy Pets: Seminars on Pet Health & Daily Care Alternatives

When: Saturday, April 5, 2008

Where: Bethel United Methodist Church
Fellowship Hall
129 W. 4th Street
Lewes, DE 19958

Time: 8:30 AM - 5:30 PM

Register by 3/10/08 - $65.00

Registration after 3/10/08 - $80.00

- ★ Learn natural ways to care for your pets using alternative methods that are safer and chemical-free
- ★ Hear how alternative treatments could reverse chronic problems
- ★ Meet experts who will help you learn how you and your pets can avoid harsh chemicals and the problems they can cause
- ★ Our Veterinarians and other practitioners will talk about various ways to enhance the health and well-being of you and your pets

Speakers and Topics

Tracy L Courtney, DVM: Homeopathic First Aid, Ozone Therapy, Myer's Cocktails & Prolotherapy, My Dog Eats BARF (Raw Diet)

James Foor, DVM: New Vaccination Protocols, Titters, Blood Work, Preventative Medicine, Arthritis, Liver Disease & Cancer, Conventional Veterinary Medicine Blended with Homeopathic Medicine

Carol Lewis, DVM: Use of Chinese Herbs I & II, Tui Na, Food Therapies-Using Food to Treat Illnesses

Sandy Ziemski, DVM: "Wholistic" Veterinary Medicine, Reading Food Labels and Food Choices, Acupuncture & Chiropractic for animals

Norma Ceaser: Animal Behaviorist and Communicator: Behavior Modification & Problem Solving, Animal Communication, Alternatives to Drugs & Chemicals, The Healing Benefits of Raindrop Therapy & Essential Oils

Robin Gough: Veterinary Nurse, Reiki Master & Certified Qi Gong Instructor: The Energy Connection - How You Can Use Reiki, Qi Gong and Other Energy Healing Techniques To Keep You And Your Dog Grounded, Centered and Balanced

To register for the Naturally Healthy Pets Seminar or for an explanation of the topics, please contact Phyllis Roby at (302) 945 - 6634 or PJRoby@mac.com or Diane Miller at (302) 645 - 7103 or 3rydmill@comcast.net

This Seminar is for Animal Companions only, however, Service animals are welcome